

The Iosco County Community Foundation (ICCF) will be honoring two incredible individuals from Iosco County, recognizing the 2023 Citizen of the Year and 2023 Junior Citizen of the Year. Nominations for these awards are open to and submitted by the public to honor local residents who give of their time, talents and resources for the betterment of others in our communities. Formerly known as the “Philanthropist of the Year”, this revamped recognition program includes a youth element where Iosco County children under the age of 18 are nominated for their community and/or charitable-minded activities.

Our upcoming Citizen of the Year event will include a fun, formal evening gathering on Thursday, May 11, 2023 to celebrate these individuals; highlight the Community Foundation’s grantees and provide a platform for them to showcase their great projects; and bring awareness to endowed charitable giving that benefits Iosco County.

Your sponsorship will help ICCF make a great event celebrating the spirit of philanthropy in Iosco County and allow us to showcase the work of people and nonprofits who are making a real difference in our communities.
